ELPAC
English Language Proficiency Assessments for California

ELPAC in the Classroom

Implications for Instruction

This professional learning is designed for teams of educators, including classroom teachers, coaches, teachers on special assignment, and site administrators who play a role in supporting high quality education for English learners in the classroom. Our session focuses on how to advance English proficiency through high-leverage instructional sequences.

Space is limited! Registration is not complete until payment is received.

Highlights:

- Connecting ELPAC task types to classroom instruction
- Creating ELPAC-like assessments in context
- Sharing video clips, student work, and our reflections from the implementation of these practices with English learners.

Please note: This is not a training for the administration of the ELPAC assessment.
