Practical Skills

FOR PROGRESS MONITORING & PROGRAM EVALUATION

The workshop, facilitated by Joel Rabin from Inform2Inspire, is designed to prepare county office of education leaders with strategies for effective data analysis and continuous improvement in K-12 education.

COE leaders, content teams, and staff who provide support or services to LEAs are encouraged to attend!

Participants will learn how to develop structured plans that incorporate both quantitative and qualitative data, monitor program impact, and engage in thorough data analysis for informed decision-making.

Attendees will gain insights into the theory and practice of K-12 program evaluation to understand the importance of aligning data collection with actionable goals, and explore practical tools and templates to manage program evaluations effectively.
