San Joaquin County Office of Education Releases Annual Report

The San Joaquin County Office of Education (SJCOE) is pleased to announce the release of its 2017-18 Annual Report.

The SJCOE provides services and support to schools in San Joaquin County's 14 school districts teaching more than 147,500 students. The SJCOE also serves the county's most at-risk students and develops countywide programs to serve special student populations.

This Annual Report provides financial information about the SJCOE and county school districts. It also highlights achievements of extraordinary students and provides information about some of the ways the SJCOE, its programs, and its services are moving education forward in San Joaquin County.

The Annual Report is being distributed to the public inside local newspapers and is available online: <http://bit.ly/SJCOEAnnualReport>.
