It's Not Just Routine

Routines are at the heart of curriculum in infant and toddler groups. Routines create learning opportunities for children to participate, develop skills, and enjoy the process. This workshop will give teachers strategies for building a close, personal relationship with each child while attending to the child's individual physical, emotional and developmental needs throughout daily routines.

Target Audience: Infant and Toddler Teachers

Cost: FREE

Registration is required. Space is limited to 25.

In this workshop, you will have opportunities to reflect upon:

Routines in the classroom

Relationship building with each child

Positive aspects to creating routines

"You'll never change your life until you change something you do daily. The secret of life is found in your daily routine."
