

WRITE LTEL INSTITUTE

Writing Redesigned for Innovative Teaching and Equity
Long-Term English Learner Institute

Join us for a three-day event!

The WRITE LTEL Institute provides a comprehensive overview of culturally and linguistically appropriate writing instruction as it relates to Long-term English Learners (LTELs). Participants will learn about evidence-based best practices, strategies, and recommendations to support LTEL students succeed and build their capacity to support equity-centered literacy design and implementation in classrooms, sites, and districts. This institute is designed to build educators' knowledge and skills to strengthen programs and services for LTELs in various content areas.

February 3

Wentworth Education Center

February 4

Teachers College of San Joaquin

March 10, 2025

Wentworth Education Center

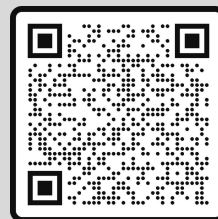

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cost

$75 for materials

Registration fee paid by EPiCC

REGISTER NOW

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
OFFICE OF EDUCATION

For more information, please contact the Language and Literacy Department at
(209) 468-4865 or languageandliteracy@sjcoe.net