

Data Network

District and charter leaders who are wanting to explore data more deeply- academic, business, IT, HR, etc., all departments are welcome. Our goal is not so much to focus on one specific type of data we are looking at, but rather what types of data are we looking at, how we are looking at this data, and what next steps are we taking based on this data. Whether novice or expert, please feel free to join, as we are hopeful to share and learn from each other.
