

Lodi Cohort--Strategic Teacher Series Year 1

September 21, 2009
October 26, 2009
November 10, 2009
December 8, 2009
January 11, 2010
February 23, 2010

Institute Focuses on the Effective Implementation of Research-Based Instructional Strategies Proven to Increase Student Achievement

Institute Topics:

- Increasing Time-on-Task
- Analyzing the California Content Standards
- Aligning Content Objectives & Independent Work
- Direct Instruction Strategies
- Checking for Student Understanding
- Providing Effective Feedback to Students
- Increasing Student Engagement
- Developing the Teacher as a Good Decision Maker
- Quality Questioning Strategies

Time: 8:30-3:00

Location: San Joaquin County Office of Ed.
Educational Service Center, Burwood 2
2707 Transworld Drive
Stockton, CA

Who Should Attend:

- Schools in Program Improvement
- School Teams (DSLTL) should consist of:
 - District Administrator
 - Principal
 - Coach (if applicable)
 - Classroom teachers

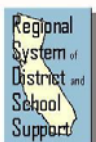

Technical Assistance:

- Demonstration Lessons
- Instructional Tours
- Schoolwide Professional Development
- DSLTL Debriefing Meetings

Fees: $1125 per team member (up to 6 people)

Data Collections:

- Baseline RSDSS 6 Instructional Time Survey (Early Fall 2009)
- Baseline RSDSS 6 Instructional Methodology Survey (Early Fall 2009)
- Schoolwide RSDSS 6 Instructional Time Survey (Early Spring 2010)
- Schoolwide RSDSS 6 Instructional Methodology Survey (Late Spring 2010)

Charles V. Vidal, Director

For Additional Information Contact
Gerry Howze, Administrative Assistant ghowze@sjcoe.net or (209) 468-9056

Register Online at www.sjcoe.org/rsdss (Calendar of Events "Lodi Cohort-- RSDSS Strategic Teacher Series, Year 1")