CURRICULUM BREAKFAST

featuring

HOPE CENTER

February 16, 2023

Dr. Angela Pharris

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Breakfast 8:00 AM - 9:00 AM

Dr. Pharris is an Assistant Professor in the Anne & Henry Zarrow School of Social Work at the University of Oklahoma, Director of the Center for Child Welfare Training and Senior Research Fellow at the Hope Research Center. Her research is focused on the application and implementation of hope-centered and trauma-informed practices that impact human service programs. Angela's current research is in child welfare and human service organizations and the application of Hope Centered and Trauma-Informed framework. This research informed the development of the "Hope Centered and Trauma Informed" training program.

Hope is a psychological strength and a buffer to stress, adversity, and burnout and a hopeful mindset that improves organizational and individual outcomes.

HOPE AWARENESS:

This training provides participants an opportunity to:

- Learn about the Science and Power of Hope and its core tenants of goals, pathways, and agency (willpower) thinking.
- Leave the event with practical knowledge and apply it to your own life.
- Gain knowledge of how Hope impacts individual and collective experiences.
- Provide your organization with the foundation for a shared language to use Hope in everyday settings.
