

C Making Every Day a Learning Day

Workshop Information:

Language, concepts, communication, and relationships can all be strengthened in child-centered active learning. This workshop provides insight and ideas into enhancing engagement and learning within everyday tasks, routines, and childhood play.

Participant Outcomes:

- Participants will hear and see examples of enhanced language and concept learning in typical activities of the young child's day.
- Participants will gain insight into addressing children's developmental limits, risks, and growth.
- Participants will be able to enhance activities of their own for immediate application in early childhood interactions in both their home or school setting.
