

Language & Literacy will host a local
ELPAC ACADEMY

The ELPAC Academy is designed for teams of educators including classroom teachers, English Language Development (ELD) specialists, and educational professionals who play a role in supporting high quality education for English learners.

Highlights of the day include:

- How the ELPAC task types connect to the California 2012 English Language Development Standards and classroom instruction
- How educators play a critical role in advancing the English proficiency of English learners
- How to develop formative and interim assessments based on the ELPAC task types
