Presented by:

Jodie Dittmar - Central CA Diagnostic Center

Friday, February 10, 2017

Sign in: 8:30am - 9:00am

Workshop: 9:00am - 12:00pm

Cost: Region 6 Districts $10.00

Outside Region 6 $20.00

Location:

San Joaquin County Office of Education

2707 Transworld Drive, Stockton

Burwood 1

Workshop Description:

This workshop will focus on successful strategies the Paraeducator can use to increase the engagement of students, most especially those with ADHD “non-severe disabilities” who are in the RSP, intervention or general education settings. Proven accommodation strategies for inclusive settings will be shared, as well as helpful tips for dealing with student attention, anxiety, sensory, and social difficulties. Collaboration and communication strategies will be briefly highlighted, as well as the relationship with executive functioning in light of the Common Core.

Participants will:

- Review various disabilities and other student needs that impact student participation in the classroom.
- Participate in activities to proactively increase student engagement.
- Participate in activities to proactively and reactively address common classroom behavior problems.

Target Audience:

Paraeducators, Aides or Instructional Assistants
