

A Paraeducator's Role In Assisting Students Impacted by Environmental Adversity, Trauma or Foster Placement

Presented By: Jodie Dittmar, M.S.— Fresno Diagnostic Center

This workshop will review such impacts as poverty, homelessness, foster care placement and/or trauma on student's development and academic success. Both academic and behavioral impacts will be included, along with opportunities for participants to consider positive impacts they may have on student's social/emotional, behavioral and academic success.

Participants will be able to:

- Consider research finding on the impacts of environmental adversity on child development and academic skills
- Consider their own perceptions of student behaviors and responses to limited academic success
- Consider evidence based effective supports in developing student success in a multi-tier system of support
