

Conflict Prevention & Resolution Through IEP Meeting Facilitation

Workshop Description:

The Key2Ed workshops are designed to present techniques & strategies to aid effective meeting facilitation. Participants learn to utilize facilitation skills to make meetings run smoothly, efficiently, and collaboratively. Also, participants learn multiple preventions, interventions & solutions for conflict. Use of these skills results in reduced stress, and shortened meetings all while building trust and a collaborative partnership between and among the IEP team

Participants learn to:

Guide IEP teams to agree on appropriate, compliant, and effective IEPs. Channel communication to building mutual understanding based on respect, create agreements based on full participation from all members, generate informed discussions & prevent, reduce & resolve conflict.

Presented by: Robin O'Shea, MA.T. & Cassie Velasquez, M. Ed.

Robin has over 20 years of experience, Robin has worked as a special educator, behavior specialist, curriculum specialist, and administrator. As an administrator, she provided educational leadership to staff and the community by focusing on parent and school team relationships, collaborating with school teams, and improving student outcomes. As faculty of Grand Canyon University, Robin taught classes including special education law, ethics, behavior management, IEP compliance, and IEP implementation. She also worked with the Arizona Department of Education Support Cadre providing consultation and support to districts through out the state of Arizona.

Cassie has over 25 years of educational experience with a main focus in special education. She is a certified mediator and was the lead IEP Facilitator for the Scottsdale Unified School District, facilitating IEP meetings involving advocates and attorneys as well as building facilitation capability throughout the school district by providing training and professional development.

Cassie is a well-known public speaker on the subject of IEP facilitation and speaks at state and national events. She is recognized nationally for her expertise and passion in this area.
