

#4 Facilitating Collaboration—Beyond the IEP Paperwork

This intermediate level training is for experienced IEP individuals who are interested in learning more about facilitative behaviors, specifically implementing customer service considerations into the IEP process. Outcomes include information and understanding of: communication strategies, agreements through collaboration & consensus, building trust and empathy, positions & interests, using visuals to document the IEP process & role play scenarios of team members.

Alternative Dispute Collaborative Continuum: This multi-part ADR series will start with basic introduction to communication skills and builds to move advanced trainings for seasoned educator. Each module is a stand alone training so that participants can attend any of all of the modules.

Part of the SJC SELPA Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Collaborative Continuum. A network that promotes research based alternative dispute resolution techniques to facilitate communication among stakeholders in the IEP.
