

Maximizing Student Engagement; Minimizing Disruptive Behaviors—How a Paraeducator Can Help

Presented By: Jodie Dittmar, M.S.— Fresno Diagnostic Center

This workshop will focus on successful strategies the Paraeducator can use to increase the engagement of all students, most especially those with ADHD and students with “non-severe disabilities” in RSP, intervention or general education settings. Proven accommodation strategies for inclusive settings will be shared, as well as tips for dealing with student attention, anxiety, sensory, and social difficulties. Collaboration and communication strategies will be briefly highlighted, as well as executive functioning, learned helplessness, and impacts of environmental adversity.

Participants will be able to:

- Review various disabilities and other student needs that impact student participation in the classroom
- Participate in activities to proactively increase student engagement
- Participate in activities to proactively and reactively address common classroom behavior problems
- Leave with resources and tools appropriate to classrooms in every tier of Multi-Tier Systems of Support
