

San Joaquin County SELPA Presents:

#6 Nuts and Bolts of IEP Facilitation

Nuts and Bolts of IEP Facilitation

This advanced level training is for experienced educators who are interested in learning more about facilitative behaviors, specifically the beginning steps to neutrally facilitate an IEP

Alternative Dispute Collaborative Continuum: This multi-part ADR series will start with basic introduction to communication skills and builds to move advanced trainings for seasoned educators. Each module is a stand alone training so that participants can attend any or all of the modules.

Part of the SJC SELPA Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Collaborative Continuum. A network that promotes research based alternative dispute resolution techniques to facilitate communication among stakeholders in the IEP.

Intended Audience:

Special Education teachers & administrators, general education staff, and others interested in learning more about the IEP process
