Academy Philosophy

The ultimate vision of the Pacific Golf Academy is to provide the opportunity for young men and women to learn the fundamentals of the game and become better golfers through excellent instruction.

Top coaches from around the country have been brought in for the development of young players. It is our goal to focus not only on a player's entire game but also their overall outlook and mentality on course management and the game of golf.

Players will hopefully leave as not only better golfers but better young men and women as well. The dedication of instructors and the quality of the University of the Pacific facilities combine to insure that the Pacific Golf Academy will be an enjoyable and valuable experience to all participants.

June 15-18, 2009

Monday 11 a.m. - Thursday 5 p.m. ~ Boys & Girls Ages 11-18

Junior golfers ages 11-18 will be grouped according to age and ability level. Instructor/counselor to camper ratio will be no more than six campers to every instructor. Academy staff will consist of Pacific Golf coaching staff, collegiate players and other golf professionals. Instruction will focus on the camper's swing, short game, putting and course management. We are dedicated to not only improving technique and fundamentals but also the mental game as well. It is our hope that junior golfers will come and enjoy four days of golf and leave a more knowledgeable player. Campers will have the opportunity to work with and learn alongside top collegiate golfers with the idea of shaping their game to become players of that ability someday soon.

The Pacific Golf Academy will be held at The Reserve at Spanos Park. The Reserve is a semi-private facility located in north Stockton and is utilized throughout the year as both a course and practice facility for the Pacific Tigers. Coaches, campers and counselors will be staying on the campus of the University of the Pacific in Stockton. Campers will have access to lounge areas, workout facilities as well as Pacific's dining commons for breakfast and dinner.

Lunch will be taken care of at the course during the day.

Along with great instruction and golf there will be many other activities throughout the camp.

Pacific Golf Academy Instructors

Going on his fourth season as head coach of the Pacific Tigers, Brandon Goethals has the team and the program headed in the right direction. In his eight seasons of coaching college golf coach Goethals has been a part of success while at Georgia Tech for four years and has now transformed Pacific into a premier collegiate golf school.

BRANDON GOETHALS

Drew Scott, now in his third season, returned to Rice University as its head golf coach after spending two years as head golf coach at UT-Pan American. Scott, a 1998 Rice graduate, was a three-year letterman for the Owls under then-coach Jim Castañeda, winning the Vic Cameron Award as the Owls' top golfer in 1994. He is a native of Pinehurst, N.C.

DREW SCOTT

Ria Quiazon enters her second season with the USF women's golf program after enjoying plenty of success during her debut on the Hilltop in 2007-08. Now Quiazon is focused on propelling the Dons into the NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in nine years and prepare the program to make its first appearance in the NCAA National Tournament.

RIA QUIAZON

A native of Sacramento, Anna played on the JFK High School boys team for four years, won the Stockton City Championship in 1998 and attended the US Junior Girls in 1999. She was a two-time SAY Golf Champion and took Cal State Monterey Bay to the nationals all four years she played collegiately.

ANNA SASS

Fletcher is in his third year as assistant coach for the Tigers. The third year coach has expanded his role among the team as the Tigers look to climb the ladder of national prominence. A native of Toledo, Iowa, Fletcher graduated from Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa in 2005.
