

ELPAC in the Classroom

Implications for Instruction

This professional learning is designed for teams of educators, including classroom teachers, coaches, teachers on special assignment, and site administrators who play a role in supporting high quality education for English learners in the classroom. Our session focuses on how to advance English proficiency through high-leverage instructional sequences.

Highlights:

- Connecting ELPAC task types to classroom instruction
- Creating ELPAC-like assessments in context
- Sharing video clips, student work, and our reflections from the implementation of these practices with English learners.
