High-Intensity Language Training (H.I.L.T.) is a communication-based, one-week immersion opportunity for adult participants. This training is designed to help educators develop initial communication skills to start conversing with Spanish speaking families. In addition to the small, highly interactive classes, students participate in various activities such as art, culture, games, etc.

There will be (2) Professional Development Units available through the Teachers College of San Joaquin County. Information will be given at the last session.
