

Language & Literacy Presents

Local History in the Classroom

Join us for an engaging presentation and discussion with Phillip Merlo from the San Joaquin Historical Museum. We will explore ways to use local history to teach community, state, national, and world history, and ethnic studies. Leave with primary sources and digital resources for use in your classroom. Share with us your ideas of how SJCOE can begin to serve your history-social science and ethnic studies needs.

FREE

Session 1

Local & State History for 3rd-4th Grade

- Indigenous Histories: Estanislao's Rebellion
- Gold, Agriculture, and Immigration in San Joaquin County

March 30th
4:00 - 5:30 PM

Session 2

Local History in a National Context for 19th Century for 8th Grade

- Women in the West/Women's Suffrage
- The Industrial Revolution: Holt Brothers Manufacturing Co.

April 6th
4:00 - 5:30 PM

Session 3

The Local, National & the Global for 20th Century for 10th, 11th, and Ethnic Studies

- Stockton at War: Japanese Internment and Military Industries in Stockton
- Imperialism, Migration, Labor Movements, and Protest in the Central Valley

April 13th
4:00 - 5:30 PM

CLICK HERE to register or

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
OFFICE OF EDUCATION

SCAN ME

(209) 468-4978

languageandliteracy@sjcoe.net